BEFORE YOU START DESIGNING

There are three questions you should ask yourself before you start designing your rug, to make sure the rug will fit your home just perfectly.

1. What is the main function of your future rug?
2. How big is the room, in which the rug is to be placed?
3. How is the room decorated?

Whether you dream about updating your home décor, warming your toes, or improving the acoustics in your home, it is important to consider the primary function of your desired rug.

Furthermore, you should know the size of the room in which you want to place the rug. Measure the room to make sure your rug size is neither too small nor too large. If it's too small, the rug could completely fade into the room, and if it's too large, the rug could dominate the entire décor.

Lastly, you should consider the placement of the rug and your furniture. This will help you make the right decision.

FOR THE LIVING ROOM

Depending on the size of your living room and sofa, we recommend three sizes. These measurements will fit most homes, but of course, we'll adjust the rug to fit your exact wants and needs.

FOR THE HALLWAY

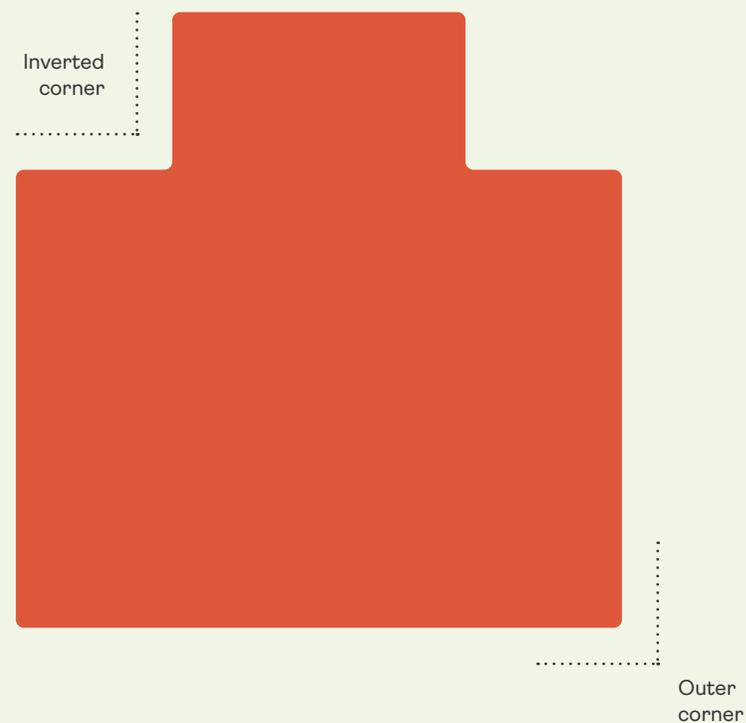

There are often a lot of crooks and corners in a hallway, but that's no obstacle when you purchase your carpets at WeRug.

At WeRug it's possible to create rugs with inverted corners, so your new rugs fits your home perfectly.

Please be aware

An inverted corner must be min. 10 cm, because of the manufacturing. Inverted corners are unfortunately not possible with The Sisal Rug at the moment.
